A very special meeting...

“A superb balance of reviews and updates, undoubtedly by well-established speakers in their fields, makes it one of the major highlights in the ophthalmic calendar”

Alistair Fielder, College News 2017

Finding hard to keep up...

subspecialisation makes it difficult at times to keep up with developments in others fields, a compact meeting covering almost every subspecialty is a great way to stay in touch

Join us...

for a weekend of updating, challenging and inspiring lectures in the warm and friendly atmosphere of an island renowned for its hospitality and sunshine

The Alistair Fielder Prize in Ophthalmology

Awarded to the best trainee and best medical student presentation of the meeting.

CPD points awarded...

By the Royal College of Ophthalmologists
